108-FOOT BRONZE STATUE OF KEMPE GOWDA UNVEILED

Modi Hails K'taka Double-engine Govt for State's Progress

Our Political Bureau

Bengaluru: Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Friday that apart from national scale, the strengths of India, taking potholes at the previous Congress led UPA regime, which he said, need to consider speed as luxury and not a necessity.

"We changed this mindset absolutely," he said, addressing a public gathering in Bengaluru.

"Karnataka's double engine government is focusing equally on both physical as well as social infrastructure," he said, alluding to the same political party being in power both at the Centre and in the state, working with the support of the people.

Karnataka, the only state in southern India where the BJP is in power, is headed for assembly election in five months and a tough challenge is posed by the opposition Congress. In Bengaluru, Modi unveiled a 108-foot bronze statue of Kempe Gowda, the founder of Bengaluru, and offered floral tributes to saint Hanuman and sage poet Maharshi Valmiki, all three events politically significant for the BJP. The politically influential Vokkaligas, Kurubas and Valmikis (Scheduled Tribes) communities claim the three top personalities as their own and celebrate their legacy.

"The India before 2014 was something altogether different than the present prosperous and technologically advanced India," Modi said, referring to the BJP's ascent to power at the Centre eight years ago.

"India is heralding a new chapter of India development under PM Narendra Modi's National Development Plan."

In Karnataka, he said, the government has sanctioned about 600,000 pucca houses for the poor and given water connectivity to about three million rural households.

Modi showered praise on Bengaluru and its technology professionals, who he said, turned Mysuru in India, the 52nd richest and the 11th a big success. "India is known all over the world for its start-ups and Bengaluru plays a vital role in getting India established as a start-up hub," he said.

Last year, Modi said, Karnataka was a pioneer in attracting foreign direct investments (FDI). Investments were not limited to just the information technology (IT) sector but covered sectors from biotechnology to defence and manufacturing. "In the past three years, when the world was affected by Covid-19, Karnataka managed to attract Rs 4 lakh crore of investments. It remained the top FDI destination last year," he said.

Earlier, the PM also inaugurated a second state-of-the-art terminal at the Fairfax Group-owned Kempegowda International Airport and flagged off Varadhi Bharat Express and Bharat Goanur Kashi Darsan Train at the railway station in Bengaluru.
